

Horizon Rum Cruise

Antigua to St Lucia "Cruise in Company" May 9 – 23 2008

Introducing the Horizon Yacht Charters Rum Cruise! What better way to sail some of the most beautiful Leeward and Windward islands than with Horizon Yacht Charters "cruise in company"?

Join Paul and Marguerite Jackson – our chosen Guides for the trip - as they set sail on May 9. Charter a yacht with us, (you can even take a professional Captain) and sail down the island chain stopping at some of the most interesting rum distilleries in the Caribbean. Where else will you be able to see the Royal Naval Tot Club in action on one day, swim in the Emerald Pool on another and learn about the traditional art of rum making the next.

This is a great trip for competent sailors (and non-sailors) who enjoy new adventures, meeting new friends along the way and sharing a glass of rum punch at the end of a day. (Note: no individual cabins for sale on this 2008 cruise).

Whether you're heading south for the summer, or looking to explore a cruising ground with experienced guides, then this is an ideal cruise.

Charter a yacht for the full 2 weeks from US$5850 - US$8550. For a group of 6 this could mean as little as US$975 per person for the full 2 week cruise! Skippers are available from US$150 per day for those who like to have someone on board to help guide them through the islands or for non-sailors who prefer to let someone else take the helm.
